

Working the Nightshift
How To Understand Your Dreams

Dr. Joan C. Harthan

© Copyright 2005 Dr. Joan C. Harthan

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the written prior permission of the author.

Note for Librarians: A catalogue record for this book is available from Library and Archives Canada at www.collectionscanada.ca/amicus/index-e.html

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
How To Use This Book	7

Part One

What Are Dreams?	11
Find out how this question has been answered over the centuries, by:
Theologians, Spiritualists & Shamans	12
Physicians	16
Philosophers & Theoretical Scientists	18
Psychologists	21
Neurobiologists	31
Does It Matter What I Believe About Dreams?	35

TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL DREAM WORKING

1. Be Honest With Yourself	41
2. Remember Your Dreams	45
3. Keep a Dream Journal	49
4. Why Not Try and Incubate a Dream?	59
5. Learn To Relax	65
Autogenic Technique	65
Controlled Breathing Technique	67
Meditative Technique	67

Part Two

TEN DIFFERENT WAYS TO EXPLORE YOUR DREAMS

Dream Mapping	71
Dream Associations	81
Dream Re-entry	89
Dream Themes	103
Role Playing Your Dream Characters	111
Dream Detective	123

Dream Peaks	135
Dream Moccasins	147
Dream Metaphors	155
Dream Transformation	163
Interpreting The Dreams Of Others	175
Please read this if you're tempted to interpret someone else's dream for them.
Conclusion	181
A Lullaby	187